- Francisco CASTILLO, member of the Partido Comunista Peruano (PCP), stated on 21 April 1953 that a meeting is being planned for Mexico City of all Latin American Communists who are at present exiled from their home countries.
- 2. CASTILLO did not say when the meeting would be held, but explained that Mexico had been selected as the meeting place because it offered greater security and a broader field for continuing the pro-peace campaign and making plans to help the comrades who are still in prison.
